ECCLESIASTES 7:1, 8

- 1. Verse 1 declares: the truth of two things:
 - 1. "A good name is better than precious ointment."."
 - 2. "The day of death is better than the day of one's birth."

2. Verse 8says:

- 1. "Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof."
 - 1. It is well that the foundation of a house should be laid...
 - 2. It is better when the top-stone is placed with rejoicing.
 - The blossom of the spring is beautiful...
 - 4. At the end of the blossom the golden luschious ripe fruit is far better.
 - 5. So it is with seed-time but at the end the bountiful harvest is far better.
- 3. SO, "the day of death is better than the day of one's birth".
 - 1. At birth there is only the possibility of good...
 - At the death of the righteous there is the certainity of blessedness and blessings.
- 4. How is the day of one's death better than the day of one's birth?
 - 1. Birth begins a life at the longest very brief. Psalms 90:10
 - Birth admits into a scene of suffering, sin and condemnation.
 - 3. Death is the aget through which we pass into a life that will never end.
 - 4. Death for the righteous is but a gate that admits into a state of eternal glory. 2 Cor. 4:17 que los grand repartiral anno hara al al ... To many Chair inlay Mitte Charles inested make at directed in ancident out to and anit-fees with at the